Galatians 3:19-26

Sunday, May 11, 2008

1. Read Galatians 3:19-26. What is this text concerned with? What question is this text answering?
2. What again is the promise that Paul keeps referring to? Where do you see that word in 3:19-26? How do you know from the text? Which verse in Galatians 3 makes that connection for us?
3. What can the law not do according to 3:21? In fact, what is the very opposite thing that law does according to 3:22?
4. What two metaphors does Paul use to describe the condemnatory, supervisory role of the law? How are they instructive?
5. If the law does not replace the promises nor add conditions to the promises, what is the role of the law in relation to the promises? (in your own words!)

1. What was new and most challenging for you in the text/message this week and why?
2. What was your view of the Law before our study? Has anything changed for you or dawned on you, because of what we're seeing here in Galatians?
3. How were people in the Old Testament saved based on all that Paul teaches here? How was Abraham saved?
4. How many times is Jesus mentioned in 3:19-26? Why? What is the significance of Jesus in this discussion? What does the coming of Jesus do to the law?
5. What difference does all this doctrine make for your daily life? Is this truth relevant or irrelevant to who we are, how we live and where we're going? How does what we learn here affect how you live your life tomorrow?
